CELLSEED

Sit down and wait
We have words for thee
The vow has been called
The time has come
Your preparation
Long ago begun
Has come to term
The bells have rung
For those who wait
It's no longer time
To anticipate

The future is now
Recall your vow
To speak for the kingdoms
To translate the word
Be not afraid
Your voice will be heard
Like the wind in the trees
Like the gulls in the breeze

Take time each day
To write words
In this way
Breathe with nature
Release your fear
Call on the help
Of the Beings near

IMMERSION 90 Day Program

There are so many waiting
In various forms
The angels and space beings
Are gathered here
To assist in the wakening
It will soon come clear
That LOVE is the answer
The seeds in the cells
The voices of nature
Will be clear
As yells Of joy
And thanksgiving too
Will hearken the deaf ones
Like a voice from the blue

This time the difference
Is really clear
The voice comes from inside
So tune your ear
To inner listening
The song of the self
Could come to some
In the form of an elf
Or an angel
Or Master
Or even a space being

In most cases the forms
Won't be for the seeing
So TRUST is the key
Release fear to the Light
And sunlight will prevail
Where formerly night
Kept the knowing in darkness
And ignorance too
Of the simple memory
That I Am you
