

Ibis, "The Connector"

"I am The One who teaches Connection.

I am The One who Knows Lost Souls.

I am The One who brings people together into understanding their animals.

I am One with Wisdom,

*I am a Transformer of the Heart & Soul of Transgressions, of Bringing Lost Hearts back together,
Parts that have lost their way,
Reweaving back together.*

I am in your Breath,

I am in your Soul,

We are One Together.

We have much work to do together, you and I.

We find new ways to communicate.

We help others to learn how to navigate through the labyrinth of understanding one another.

*I give the perspective from a horse's body and being,
Yet I Transcend this experience into all species.*

The time has come for those who are in human bodies to understand from another's perspective.

This seeds compassion,

companionship,

a mutual friendship,

and one that does not use force or domination.

How can you dominate another soul?

This simply does not work.

My work in this lifetime

has been to find my own Freedom

Ibis, "The Connector"

*Deep within
And to bring this forward for you as well.*

*When you see me Gallop,
This Freedom,
Racing in the Wind
for the sheer Pleasure of it,
when we Commune,
it is for the Sake of Communion.*

For Joining Together is a deeply held need.

*We're all in Need of just Connecting,
Finding and Feeling the Connection.*

*This is the Point of Learning Animal Communication Together,
To Find and Feel
the Depth of our Connections.*

"So you could call me 'The Connector' or even 'The One Who Connects You Together.'

*Isn't this what our life has been about?
Not just riding,
not going places outwardly,
but To Connect,
to Just Be,
to Just FEEL one another
With No Agenda.*

*This is What I Teach.
To find these places inside of yourself,
and with your own animals, in your own life,
in whatever it is you do..and with whomever you meet day to day.*
